Key indicator 2: The profile of Physical Education School Sport and Physical Activity being raised across the school as a tool for whole school improvement

- 1) Ensuring that all PE lessons are fully inclusive, engaging, energetic and coherent.
- 2) Highlighting the importance of diet and nutrition alongside regular exercise.
 - Children to be aware of their diets.
 - Broaden children’s knowledge of how the combination of exercise and diet benefits long-term mental and physical health.
 - Cross curricular links to science (human body, movement, body parts). Children to be aware of what they eat, highlighting healthy snacks, impact of diet on body and mind.
- 3) Promoting active travel by joining Walk to School Scheme.
- 4) Recognition of pupils’ sporting achievements- sporting achievements celebrated during collective worship and through school newsletter and school website.

Key indicator 3: Increased confidence, knowledge and skills of all staff in teaching PE and sport

- Whole school subscription to Complete PE (PE resources platform) helps teachers plan and deliver regular, fully inclusive, coherent PE lessons, including wide range of activities.
- This academic year all teachers and support staff took part in a twilight training focusing on teaching Outdoor and Adventurous Activities.
- Additionally, class teachers were supported by a PE Coordinator in teaching PE (team teaching).

Key indicator 4: Broader experience of a range of sports and activities offered to all pupils

- All children regularly attend well planned, fully inclusive, coherent PE lessons, accessing wide range of activities (Gymnastics, Dance, Swimming, Athletics, various Invasion Games, various Net and Wall Games, Various striking and Fielding Games).
- All children have access to a range of sports extracurricular and lunch time clubs provided by our school free of charge (eg. Football, Tennis, Table Tennis, Handball, Basketball).
- Year 5 children and teachers took part in Football Forward School Project which included: CPD for teachers, workshops for children (gender equality in football, team building, football skills and careers in sport), class trip to Wembley Stadium.
- Year 5 children experienced a residential trip to Gorsefield where they were immersed in a range of outdoor and adventurous activities from orienteering, team building to archery and cycling.
